

INDIGENOUS WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS MICRO-LOAN FUND

Community Futures Development Corporation of Central Interior First Nations (CFDC of CIFN) has partnered up the National Aboriginal Capital Corporations Association (NACCA) to deliver the Indigenous Women Entrepreneurship (IWE) Micro-loan Fund Program.

NACCA has tailored programs and supports for Indigenous Women entrepreneurs that will be delivered through workshops by CFDC of CIFN.

IWE PROGRAM IS INTENDED TO:

- ✓ Prepare Indigenous Women with training and resources to help build knowledge, skills, and confidence to assist in their business growth and development.
- ✓ Support Indigenous Women with access to capital, to start or grow a business. The loan must not exceed $20,000, and interest rate is prime + 4%.
- ✓ Assist Indigenous Women with a non-repayable contribution.

To learn more about the IWE Micro-Loan Fund Program, please contact:
Chasity Jones, Business Support Officer at (250) 214-9888 or Email chasity@cfdcocifn.com.